Trend Setting—Beautifully designed with hints of detail, texture, and color that add drama to both contemporary and classic environments

1 From the Douglas Levine Collection for Manheim Ruseau, the Bijou Nightstand is refreshingly contemporary, yet timeless and sophisticated. Maple in a hand-rubbed finish of black lacquer with brass trim. Great as a living room side table. H 27" W 40" D 16". Available to interior designers and architects through John Rosselli & Associates, D & D Building, 979 Third Avenue, Suite 1800, NYC. 212.593.2060, or visit www.manheimruseau.com

2 Wood and raffia pair up beautifully in this delightfully casual coffee table from A. Rudin. The tray top offers an air of casualness and prevents things from sliding off. Ample-size lower shelf for storing books and things. H 19" W 36" D 36". Custom sizing available. Matching chair, sofa, and console offered. A. Rudin, D & D Building, 979 Third Avenue, Suite 1201, NYC. 212.644.3766

3 The first-ever collection of woven leather carpeting that can be installed wall-to-wall. Strips of leather are woven with cotton twine into a linear pattern in four neutral colors. From the Bridal Collection. Stark Carpet Corp., D & D Building, 979 Third Avenue, 11th Floor, NYC. 212.752.9000

4 The stunning Torretta, a hollow, hand-blown Venetian glass table lamp, is embellished with linear matte hand etching in the centuries-old tradition of Muranese glass making. Available in gold dust with brass hardware. Size: H 27.5" W 4"-square. Recommended shade is cylindrical in shape and available in neutral colors. Shades sold separately. Donghia Inc., D & D Building, 979 Third Avenue, Suite 613, NYC. 212.935.3713
