

LUXURY LIVING

A woman with long, wavy brown hair, wearing a vibrant red strapless dress with a large floral applique on the bodice, is seated on a dark wood chair. She is smiling warmly at the camera. The chair has a striped cushion and a red pillow with gold fringe. Behind her is a large, ornate painting in a silver frame, depicting a woman in a light blue dress and a young child in a white dress. The background wall is light-colored with decorative paneling.

Tableau Tables

Manheim-Ruseau's Revisions collection includes modern accent tables inspired by 19th- and 20th-century designs that meld rich finishes and contemporary style. The Preston Occasional Table, shown here, draws upon the Art Deco tradition with slightly curved legs and a rich mahogany finish with a distinctive radiant starburst on the top shelf.

Worldly Furnishings

Where in the world does Tucker Robbins get his design ideas? From Africa, Asia and the Americas, to be specific. Each Tucker Robbins piece carries the unique, exotic imprint of a distant land, with woods like acacia, satinwood and tropical pine that are finished using only natural oils.

Egg-cellent Idea

Who knew the ostrich was such a multi-purpose bird? First leather and burgers, now lighting. Hinson & Company introduces the Sandy 3 Pendant, a mobile made of farm-raised ostrich eggs and stainless steel. Durable, tactile and eclectic, the eggs diffuse light in a distinctive way. The collection also features a table lamp and wall sconce. Available exclusively through Hinson & Company.
