

WASHINGTON

spaces

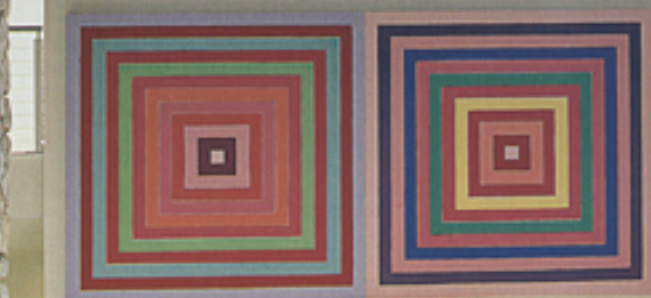

DC • MD • VA • GUIDE TO LUXURY LIVING

Fun With Dick and Jane Stoker 54

Taming Clutter 82

An Intimate Loft in
Adams Morgan 96

What's New In Condos 135

$5.95

WINTER 2006
WASHINGTONSPACES.COM

convey complement complete

1

Move over beanbags; make room for fatboys, bringing versatile seating to offices, dorms, and recreational spaces. A special coating allows cleaning with a damp cloth. Visit fatboyusa.com for more information or purchase at Apartment Zero, 202.628.4067.

Relax

2

Escape from winter's chill with Paradise Found, a textile collection in tropical hues by Perennials Outdoor Fabrics in corals, stripes, solids, and textured terry. Available to the trade at Holly Hunt, The Washington Design Center, 202.554.2910 or perennialsfabrics.com.

Dream

Manheim-Ruseau styled its Directoire Chair after a Jacob-Desmaller original and gave it a solid back of mahogany with bronze inlay. Suggests minimalist, art deco look. Available through John Rosselli & Associates, 202.337.7676 or manheimruseau.com.

Smooth

3

4

Reshape

Add balance and style with Vaughan's Greek Key Coffee Table in red or black lacquer. The 18-inch-high table makes a statement in any room. Available to the trade at Hines & Company, The Washington Design Center, 202.484.8200 or www.vaughandesigns.com.

5

Feel

Angela Adams brings dimension to any decor with her new collection of fabrics for Architex, including Manfred in Tangerine, Pool, Citron, and Espresso. Available to the trade. Call 800.621.0827 or visit architex-ljh.com and angelaadams.com.